MAYOR'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

Gentlemen of the City Council:—

Let my first words be words of greeting, welcoming you as the municipal representatives of the people to this Council Board,

In looking round the Horseshoe one cannot help but be struck by the fact that the faces of many old members are missing and that in their places we see the faces of men, some elected for the first time, others returning to Council after a more or less protracted absence.

This year's Council differs from its predecessors in that we have, as far as my memory serves me, for the first time, representatives of Labor as distinct from those elected as representing the people at large. I welcome these gentlemen to the Council Board and trust that the experiences of the coming year may give them a deep insight into the Municipal problems that from time to time confront the City Fathers, and let me assure them that we shall welcome the benefit of having their practical knowledge and their advice and opinions, more particularly as it affects the organizations that they have the honor to represent.

The recent elections were novel also in that for the first time women stood as candidates for the School Board. One, Mrs. Newlands, being elected without opposition in Rieau Ward, another, in the person of Miss Mowat, being elected after a spirited contest in Ontario Ward. We shall, I feel sure, all watch the municipal careers of these women with interest and if they carry into their new spheres of activity the abilities and energies that have made them known in times past, the School Board will be the richer of the addition to its membership.

I am strongly in favor of the widest and keenest possible interest in the Returned Soldier and his family. The man who has served the City and the Country and the Empire in the greatest war in all history must have the fullest possible recognition. Empty words of praise exaltation will be a poor reward indeed for valiant services rendered.

I would therefore urge upon the Council to commence recognition by appointing a returned soldier, if not two, to the Board of Education as the representatives of this Council. I am also of the opinion that a returned soldier should be on the Board of Health.

As Kingston will be the Headquarters of one of the most important dispersal areas in Canada and the centre of demobilization for a large district into which men from Overseas will be poured at the rate of five hundred every week until the last man reaches Canada, I feel that the Council should make every effort to see that these men are properly received, properly cared for and a special effort should be made to retain as many of these men and their families as possible so that Kingston might profit by an increase in population and a most worthy addition to its citizenship.

Before attempting to direct your attention to the problems that in my judgment will face you during the coming year, I know I express the sentiments of you all when I state that we rejoice that the war is virtually over and that there are prospects in the near future of an honorable and enduring peace. Our Empire, of which we are all so proud, and of which Canada forms a not unworthy part, has, in conjunction with our gallant Allies, more particularly France, Italy and the United States and Belgium, won a trimphant victory for Liberty and Right. For the last four years the word "Canada" has, in relation to the war, become known throughout the world for all that is involved in the idea of Courage, Self Sacrifice and Devotion to Duty, and among the men that left our shores there have been none more gallant than those men we are proud to term Kingstonians, many of their best made the supreme sacrifice and we treasure their memory.

"All they had hoped for, all they had, they gave
"To save mankind—themselves they scorned to save."

During the year it will be our privilege to take into consideration what memorial Kingston shall erect to perpetuate the memory of those who have gone to their rest and of those who had the good fortune to return and whom we welcome to live amongst us. That our decision may be wise my suggestion would be that a committee of Council acting in conjunction with a committee of the citizens, pass in review the various proposals that have been advanced for consideration, and that when a conclusion has been reached that we endeavor to have unanimity of purpose and to carry to completion a memorial that will do credit not only to those who have represented us overseas but to the City that has in times past, occupied such a prominent place in Canada's history.

As demobilization progresses industrial and commercial problems will thrust themselves upon us for solution. It is a matter of congratulation that the Salvation Army, that has done such thorough war aid work during the past few years, is not relaxing its efforts but is preparing to raise a fund to be used in assisting those who will soon be returning to our shores. Kingston is fortunate in that we have in our midst industrial enterprises that will be able to give employment to many men who have been, or will be thrown out of work through the cessation of hostilities. The Locomotive Works sometime ago began to put its undertaking on a peace footing and the skilled mechanics who produced shells, are now turning themselves to locomotive construction to aid in the national development. The Collingwood Shipbuilding Co. are about to lay the keel of one of the largest, if not the largest, steamer ever built in this district. I sincerely trust that the difficulties that exist between the proprietors of the Textile Mill and the operators may soon be adjusted and that having found a common ground past differences may be forgotten.

As far as statistics go it would appear that within the next few months some three or four hundred thousand men would be returning to Canada and with them some fifty or sixty thousand women and children; many of these women will be new to Canadian conditions and Canadian life and if Kingston is to be advantaged by the tide of people flowing this way it is absolutely necssary that a solution be found for the housing problem. The development of our industries has brought within our bounds many men and their families, while the high cost of building has prevented the erection of homes to meet the additional demands, with the result that in many quarters there is unjustifiable crowding and in not a few instances people find themselves compelled to live under conditions that are anything but satisfactory, and that are not of their choosing. My suggestion would be that a special committee of Council should immediately be appointed to give careful consideration to this problem to secure full information as to what the Governments are prepared to do, and that as promptly as possible, to allow operations beginning when Spring weather permits, should report to Council with recommendations and suggestions. If it were thought well it might be advisable that representative citizens should be added to Council committee.

The high cost of living, with its incidental burden on those least able to pay, merits our consideration. It is difficult, without accurate information, to reach a conclusion as to whether or not more than a fair price and a fair profit is being had from those who produce or sell commodities within our midst, and it seems to me only fair to the producer, the vendor and the consumer that Council should take advantage of the recent legislation by the appointment of a committee or commission to make careful enquiry as to the cost of any article, the price of which it is thought has been unduly advanced.

As you are aware, with demobilization comes reconstruction. The Minister of Finance has lifted the ban on municipal borrowings and in view of the active work about to be undertaken on road construction by the Provincial Government, we will, if we are wise, give immediate consideration to the question of street paving and improvements. Many of our roadways are in a deplorable condition, worse by far than they would have been if labor and cheap money had been available for maintenance and reconstruction. The people at large are alive to the lack of wisdom of putting stone as macadam on the main central streets used for heavy traffic, in the spring and summer, and carrying it off as mud in the autumn. What is desired are permanently paved streets for heavy traffic within the heart of the city, which should be connected with the outlying district by well constructed and well drained macadamized roadways; care must be taken in any plan suggested, to provide for roadways not only suitable to the central portion of the city but also such as are required even in the remote residential districts.

The construction of the new Welland Canal, which is again being begun, directs our attention to the necessity of improvements in our harbor, the accommodation of which must necessarily be taxed when the large grain boats of the Upper Lakes come from Port Athur to our shores. We should, I think, be active in endeavoring to interest the Government in the problems that confront us and to impress on those in authority that while Kingston is prepared to do her share she realizes that adequate accommodation can only be provided with Government assistance.

I am advised that during the year those interested in the Kingston Fair, Queen's University and the Kingston Hospital are likely to ask the citizens for assistance to permit of development and advancement in the work undertaken by these institutions, and I feel sure that when representations are made to us they will have our careful consideration and that the people will not be unsympathetic to the institutions that have done not a little for Kingston.

The retiring Mayor, Mayor Hughes, whose energy, tact and resourcefulness have greatly endeared him to the people, has the congratulations of all of us in accomplishing what was always thought to be the impossible—leaving office with a surplus in the City Treasury. During the war Kingston has given liberally in response to the various calls that have been made upon her and while our bonded debt has increased somewhat I feel sure that there is not an elector within the bounds of the City, who regrets the generosity of the Council since 1914, and we only regret that our giving was limited by our means. Careful consideration will have to be given to expenditures during the next few years. Our assessment is not low; I would urge upon the Finance Committee that they endeavor to impress on the City Assessor the wisdom of his making every possible effort to equalize the burden of taxation and take such steps as may in their judgment, and his, be thought best, to secure a full contribution in proportion to the value of the property, from those who occupy the more pretentious residences as compared with the smaller home within the municipality.

I look forward with faith and with optimism to the future. The group of buildings in which we are today bear testimony to the courage and foresight of those who, in days gone, occupied the positions we now fill and undertook the solution of problems similar to those that today confront us. With the co-operation of all classes, with patience, and with forbearance, there is no reason why Kingston should not go through the years given to demobilization and reorganization with satisfaction to the citizens and advantage to the City. I desire to impress on you all the duty you owe to the people you have the honor to represent; to give the best there is in you to the work you have promised to undertake. I look forward to our year's work with hopeful expectation of many profitable evenings to be spent in the service of the City. I shall endeavor to preside over the meetings of Council without partiality, and to treat each member with courtesy and consideration; I shall expect the observance of rules and regulations that experience has demonstrated are essential to secure freedom of debate and the accomplishment of results. I ask your co-operation and be assured that I shall second your endeavors. Let us all work together to make this year memorable in the annals of Kingston, and that the people at large shall realize that the Council has left undone nothing that should have been done on its part to advance the interests of the City.

Civic Budget

Moved by Ald. Kent, seconded by Ald. Litton (2) that the Council go into the Committee of the whole on the reading of the Budget, clause by clause.—Carried.

Committee Rooms, City Hall,
Kingston, Feb. 27th, 1919.

The Committee on Finance and Accounts, in submitting the estimates for the year 1919, beg leave to report as follows:

The Bonded debt of the City to 31st December, 1919, is $1,776,635.33, made up as follows:

Water Works		$ 135,500 00
Light Works		514,163 01
SCHOOLS:—
Public	$ 124,542 12
High	65,889 50
		190,431 62
LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS:—
Corporation's Portion	$ 268,481 85
Owner's Portion	238,701 12
		507,182 97
General Purpose		429,357 73
		$1,776,635 33

The amount of the Sinking Funds is $255,745.14, and of this amount $190,762.33 is invested in Government and Municipal Debentures and $64,982.81 is on special deposit in the Bank.

The amount to be levied for the Sinking Funds this year is $39,989.50, the parties specially benefited paying $17,937.71, and the City generally paying $22,051.79.

Your Committee has been obliged to provide an increased amount equal to nearly 2/3 of a mill for Educational purposes, while the Suburban Area Commission has demanded a levy of ½ of a mill for their purposes.

The total increase in the revenue this year from all sources based on last year's rates is only $5,154, and in order to avoid increasing the rate more than 1 mill, your Committee has been obliged to reduce the amounts asked for by the various spending Committees to such an extent as in its opinion is consistent with efficiency.

The Civic Budget for the last few years show that the Annual Uncontrollable and semi-Uncontrollable expenditures have grown to a startling extent, and out of all proportion to the growth of the City in Assessment and population.

In order to meet these expenditures the rate has been increased until the limit is now about reached. The following statement will show how the Tax rate is applied:

Board of Education	9½ mills
Debentures & Interest	9 mills
Fire Department	2 mills
Charitable Grants	2 mills
Suburban Area	½ mills
Administration of Justice	1½ mills
Street Lighting	1½ mills
Available for other purposes	2½ mills

Your Committee recommend that a rate of 19 mills for General Purposes and 9½ mills for Educational purposes making in all 28½ mills on the Dollar be placed on this year's ordinary Assessment and also that a rate of 1 mill on the dollar for the collection and disposal of Garbage be imposed on the Assessment liable therefor.

May it please Your Royal Highness:

On behalf of the citizens, the Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Kingston rejoice in the privilege of extending to Your Royal Highness a sincere, hearty and loyal welcome to the city whose history has been one of supreme devotion and loyalty to the throne of Great Britain. We desire to express to you in person our allegiance to our gracious and beloved Sovereign,

His Majesty the King, whom we esteem with a deep and abiding love for his wise and sympathetic rule.

We indeed assure you of our unswerving attachment to the throne of Britain, not only because it is the very embodiment of all that stands for liberty, justice, freedom and right to its subjects, but because it rests upon the broad principles of democracy, and its citizens are truly a free and untrammeled people. One outstanding virtue in the British character which contributes to Britain's greatness and makes her strong in the world is that she extends to her conquered enemies a greater freedom and opportunity for development than they ever had under any other conditions, with the result that they rapidly become true and loyal subjects, and fight with enthusiasm for the rights of Britain, as was evidenced in the great world war.

During the year 1901 the citizens of Kingston had the privilege of welcoming His Majesty the King and Her Majesty the Queen when they paid us a visit, and now the pleasure and honor we experience in welcoming their royal son, the heir apparent to the Crown, on this occasion is enhanced by the opportunity afforded us humbly to beg of Your Royal Highness, as we here do, to convey to His Gracious Majesty an assurance of our deep loyalty and affection towards his person. Sentiments such as these have grown stronger because of the unselfish and loving service of His Majesty (so ably assisted by Her Gracious Majesty Queen Mary) rendered to his subjects during the great world struggle. His devotion to duty, personal interest in the wounded, the sick and the afflicted, his heartfelt interest in all his subjects, including those who came from beyond the seas, as well as those at home, have proved him to be a King of whom we are infinitely proud.

It is a great honor to have your Royal Highness visit us while our hearts are still filled to overflowing with thankfulness for the triumphant ending of the world's greatest and most vital war, in which right has eventually triumphed over might, that was vicious, brutal and unholy. We welcome you as the great-grandson of Queen Victoria, whose beauty of character was unexcelled and who was the most beloved Queen that ever reigned on earthly throne. We welcome you as the grandson of King Edward, the peacemaker of blessed memory. We welcome you because you are the royal son of their Gracious Majesties King George and Queen Mary, who have so endeared themselves to the hearts and minds of the Canadian people; but especially now do our hearts rejoice at the opportunity to welcome Your Royal Highness, because you have inherited and possess the combined excellent qualities and virtues of your royal forbears.

During your progress through our country you have won the love, admiration and unceasing homage of our Canadian citizens by the magnetism of your personality, by your genuinely heartfelt smiles, by your true sympathy and thoughtful consideration for every man, woman and child belonging to Canada .You have shown such deep interest in everything that pertains to the well-being, prosperity and happiness of the Canadian people that we feel you have a true sympathetic interest in our life and people.

We have special interest in Your Royal Highness, and we love you in consequence of the magnificent part you have played in the great struggle now ended. You were associated with and devoted to the Canadian soldiers, sharing with them great hardships and trials when they were rendering valiant service for the Empire. Our boys are never tired of singing the praises of the soldier Prince who fought with them for the liberty of the people, and so Kingston rises on this occasion to welcome and to pay homage to Your Royal Highness.

Your visit to our city is most opportune, inasmuch as iKngston is and has always been truly loyal to the British throne. The U. E. Loyalists who in 1784 could not bear to be seeredv from the mother country settled here and named our city "Kingston" in honor of the King of England. This loyalty has ever since remained. Many of her sons fought in the South African war; three thousand of her sons and daughters served in the great world war, many having paid the supreme sacrifice; 71,000 troops were sent out from this military district to defend the integrity of the British Empire.

Kingston's citizens, therefore, open their arms to welcome Britain's illustrious Prince, and may Almighty God, the King of Kings, Prince of Peace, bless and prosper you.

We have the honor to be, Sir, Your Royal Highness' most obedient servants.

W. W. SANDS,
City Clerk.

H. W. NEWMAN,
Mayor.

Reply to the Address of the City of Kingston.

Mr. Mayor:—

I am deeply touched by the heartiness of your welcome to this ancient and most loyal city, and I thank you sincerely for your warm expression of attachment to my father, the King. I can assure you that His Majesty's sympathies and those of the Queen have been closely and constantly with the troops of the Empire and with their families throughout the great war.

I am particularly glad to have this opportunity of congratulating the city of Kingston personally on its great services during that long struggle. I know that your contribution to the fighting strength of the Canadian corps was very high, and that your men in every way lived up to the fine military tradition always held by this city since its first foundation as a frontier fort. It will be a great pleasure to me to see the veterans of Kingston on parade this morning. I was also able to realize at the front how valuable were the influence and training of the Royal Military College, with which the city has always been so closely associated.

Now that our efforts have secured us victory, I hope that we may look forward to a period of steady reconstruction and development, in which all sections of the community will share the benefits of peace. I most cordially endorse your words, Mr. Mayor, regarding the principles on which the Empire is based, and I am sure that the loyalty of Kingston to those principles will never grow less.

I thank you for the much too generous things which you have said about myself a,nd I wish the city much prosperity and happiness.

(Signed)
